

Randolph County Farmers
Place Big Chick Order

WEDOWE, Ala., March 11.—The cooperative purchasing idea is rapidly gaining favor among Randolph County farmers. Evidence of this is presented in a report by L. M. Hollingsworth, county agent.

Farmers of the county placed the largest order for baby chicks that has been made since they began cooperative purchasing. It calls for 25,000 chicks. At the end of February orders had been looked for 815 tons of fertilizer, 55 bushels of soybean and 25 tons of poultry feed.

Fifteen new members joined the farm bureau during February.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Brannon, of Enterprise, visited friends in Elba Sunday.

Miss Ella Story, of Dothan, spent the days in Elba the first of the week, in interest of the Woodman Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stough spent Monday and Tuesday in Montgomery.

Louise Morgan is leaving this week for Livingston State Teachers College, where she will attend the spring term of school.

Mrs. B. H. Mitchell and Miss Edna Mitchell spent several days in Montgomery last week.

Mr. John H. Wilkerson, of Troy, was a business visitor to Elba Monday.

Mr. W. L. Parks and Mr. C. L. McGuffee, of Troy, spent Monday in Elba.

Mr. W. M. Bushing, of Samson, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brannon Monday.

"Clean chicks solve the problem of protecting paying pullets. Cheap chicks are usually not worth the cost. Accredited chicks—G. A. Tropp, head poultryman, Auburn.

Alabama Will Spend
Large Sum In Building

The State of Alabama and its various counties and municipalities will spend for public improvements and buildings during 1936 an estimated sum of $70,813,000, according to figures furnished by the Executive Department to R. P. Lamont, U. S. Secretary of Commerce. Of the above amount, $10,000,000 will be spent by the State for roads and bridges and $4,000,000 by the State for buildings for higher institutions of learning.
